Sexual Addiction in the Digital Age with Special Focus on Addiction Interaction Disorder

Friday, October 5, 2018 8:30 am – 3:45 pm (6-hours)

(8:00 am – 8:30 am Registration Check-in & Continental Breakfast)

This program is funded in part by the
William B. and Sylvia A. Hunsberger Fund

The field of technology as it relates to intimacy disorders will be the focus of this full-day training. The relationship between sexual addiction and early trauma survival will be reviewed along with managing and pacing recovery in multiple related areas such as behavioral (addictions) and emotional/relationship (intimacy problems). Attendees will learn the diagnostic criteria for sexual addiction, common behaviors and problems encountered by sex addicts, strategies for eliminating problem sexual behavior and how to identify and understand Addiction Interaction Disorder. Discussion will include a gender based model of healing that is most commonly utilized in treatment settings, both outpatient and residential.

At the conclusion of the seminar, attendees should be able to:

- Discuss current research on sexual addiction and compulsivity
- List three ways sexual addiction and substance use disorders interact
- Identify “problem” sexual behavior vs. addictions
- Discuss digital technology and how it can escalate addictive behavior patterns
